Graeme of Thrones The Parody (Mirvish Productions)

October 11 to 23, 2016, Panasonic Theatre

www.mirvish.com

In this critically-acclaimed theatrical journey through the Seven Kingdoms, direct from sold out shows in London's West End, avid 'Thrones' fan Graeme just wants to recreate his favourite fantasy saga on stage - aided and abetted by his best friend Paul and the girl he used to fancy at school - Bryony. He doesn't quite have the same budget as the TV show, or as many cast members, or the performance skill required, but he's sure George RR Martin would approve – and that's what matters. But when news reaches them that an influential theatrical producer is in the building, Graeme decides that this could be his big break - as long as nothing goes wrong.

A Brimful of Asha (Soulpepper Theatre)

November 1 to 5, 2016

www.soulpepper.ca

Why Not Theatre

Ravi Jain and Asha Jain

Directed by Ravi Jain

After winning over crowds around the globe, this audience-favourite returns. Soulpepper Associate Artistic Director Ravi Jain shares the stage with his mother, Asha, to tell their true (and very Canadian) story of generational and cultural clash. Mother and son present very different sides of the same story, with touching and hilarious results.

"Pioneering in its intimacy and unapologetically heartwarming" - The New York Times

The 7 Fingers Cuisine & Confessions (Mirvish Productions)

November 1 to December 4, 2016, Princess of Wales Theatre

www.mirvish.com

COME FOR THE CIRCUS, STAY FOR THE BANANA BREAD!

Storytelling through food... this is the sweet taste of childhood, of a summer breeze through a screen door. Or the hot chocolate-dampened lips of a first kiss. Life happens in the kitchen. Late night confessionals over tea and a jar of Nutella. Elaborately choreographed family meals. Lessons learned, secrets exchanged, bonds forged, reinforced by our most visceral of senses. Accompanying the usual eye-popping flight of acrobatic choreography and pulsating music are the other three senses — the touch of hands in batter, the smell of cookies baking, the taste of roasted oregano — leading us through a span of times and countries, all the while the iconic kitchen our common meeting point.

TREE-MENDOUS (Famous PEOPLE Players)

November 4 to December 30, 2016

www.famouspeopleplayers.com

"A medley of wonderful holiday vignettes with thrilling up-beat music that will have everyone feeling the spirit of the season." This new Holiday Show is every child's wish and every adults dream – music, dance, colour and lots of excitement.

A musical that promises to be ... TREE-Mendous for the whole family

Fight Night (Mirvish Productions)

November 4 to 20, 2016, Panasonic Theatre

www.mirvish.com

FIVE PERFORMERS. FIVE ROUNDS. YOUR VOTE. ONE SURVIVOR.

As one of the most controversial elections in the world is underway in the United States this November, we bring you an acclaimed show that examines the notion of how we choose our political candidates and how we ultimately decide on who to support. FIGHT NIGHT takes the form of an actual election. We in the audience are the electorate. We are each given a mobile electronic device with which we can cast our votes. Five candidates offer us their background and platforms. We then have to decide who to vote for.

Chasse-Galerie (Soulpepper Theatre)

November 11 to November 26, 2016

www.soulpepper.ca

Produced by KABIN and The Storefront Theatre

Book adapted by Tyrone Savage

Music and Lyrics by James Smith

Directed by Tyrone Savage

Based on one of Canada's most beloved folk tales, the original Dora Award-winning musical Chasse-Galerie follows the adventures of four coureuses des bois stuck deep in the Québec forest on New Year's Eve. The four woods-women, pining for warmth and their loved ones, strike a deal with a mysterious stranger who offers to enchant their canoe to fly back to Montréal. The catch: make it back before dawn, or pay the devil's price.

"An enjoyable, foot-stomping piece of theatre." – NOW Magazine

Come From Away (Mirvish Productions)

November 15, 2016 to January 8, 2017, Royal Alexandra Theatre

www.mirvish.com

COME FROM AWAY is the breathtaking new musical that played record-breaking engagements in La Jolla and Seattle — and now it's coming to Toronto prior to its Broadway run.

On September 11th, 2001, 38 planes with 6,579 passengers were stranded in a remote town in Newfoundland. The locals opened their hearts and homes, and hosted this international community of strangers for a week — spurring unexpected camaraderie in extraordinary circumstances. When the world stopped, their stories moved us all.

Eat, Buy, Repeat: The Second City's Guide to the Holidays (Second City)

November 24, 2016 to January 1, 2017

<http://www.secondcity.com/shows/toronto/venue/toronto-mainstage/>

This show is chock full of original songs, hilarious new sketches, plus some Second City favourites from holidays past.

A great family activity where you don't actually have to talk to your family. An office outing that's smart, funny, and over in two hours. What more could you ask from the comedians of The Second City? Alcoholic hot chocolate brought directly to your table? We have that. (Recommended for ages 16+).

The Man in Black (Mirvish Productions)

November 29 to December 11, 2016, Panasonic Theatre

www.mirvish.com

March 11 to April 23, 2017, Royal Alexandra Theatre

www.mirvish.com

NORTH AMERICAN PREMIERE

Direct from London's West End comes the new hit musical MRS HENDERSON PRESENTS. It's London, 1937, and recently widowed eccentric, Laura Henderson, is looking for a way of spending her time and money when her attention falls on a run down former cinema in Great Windmill Street. Hiring feisty impresario Vivian Van Damm to look after the newly renovated Windmill Theatre, the improbable duo present a bill of non-stop variety acts. But as war looms something more is required to boost morale and box office... When Mrs Henderson comes up with the idea of The Windmill Girls — glamorous young women posing as nude statues — audiences flock. And as the Blitz hits London, The Windmill provides a refuge for all, boasting the spirit-raising slogan “We Never Close”. Contains elegant nudity.

Titled 50/50/50, this exhibition program will invite visitors to experience art in fifty-year leaps stretching backward and forward from the McMichael's founding years in the mid-1960s. Through three distinct yet complementary exhibitions, the gallery celebrates historic, Modern, and contemporary Canadian art at its best: Wounds of War, featuring the WWI-period work of A.Y. Jackson and Tom Thomson; In Studio, featuring the modernist work of Jack Bush; and Needles and Pins, featuring the work of Colleen Heslin, the national winner of the Annual RBC Canadian Painting Competition in 2013.

Álvaro Siza: Gateway to the Alhambra (Aga Khan Museum)

Until January 8, 2017

www.agakhanmuseum.org

Spain's iconic Moorish palace and World Heritage Site comes to life in new exhibition showcasing the designs of one of today's greatest living architects. Through renderings, models, large-scale photographs and video, the exhibition reveals the artistic challenge behind Siza's design of the new visitor centre at the Alhambra in Granada, Spain as well as architectural objects from the Alhambra's own collection.

Read All About It: The First World War as Front Page News (Mackenzie House Museum)

Until January 29, 2017

www.toronto.ca/mackenziehouse

This exhibit examines the challenges faced by Toronto newspapers during the First World War. Never had there been a greater demand by the public for up to the minute information; never had there been greater restrictions from the government on what the newspapers were allowed to print. Newspapers that broke the Chief Censor's rules could face financial penalty or even be shut down.

Toronto Maple Leafs Centennial Exhibit (Hockey Hall of Fame)

Until February 28, 2017

www.hhof.com

The limited-time Toronto Maple Leafs Centennial Exhibit is an immersive tribute to 100 years of pride and passion. The exhibit pays homage to those who have worn the blue and white as well as highlights some of the most iconic moments in franchise history. Artifacts on display include Darryl Sittler's stick used during his 10-point game, Bill Barilko's Stanley Cup-winning OT puck, Mats Sundin's jersey from the final game at Maple Leaf Gardens, plus many more unique treasures, spanning from Conn Smythe to Morgan Rielly.

Standing Tall: The Curious History of Men in Heels (Bata Shoe Museum)

Until May 2017

www.batashoemuseum.ca

Never before have a few inches mattered so much...

Challenge your preconceived notions of who wears heels and why. From privileged rulers to hyper-sexualized rock stars, explore the history of men in heels from the early 1600s to today. Offering rare examples of men's heeled footwear from the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, mid-nineteenth century military boots, 1930s cowboy boots and 1940s biker boots, visitors can also see John Lennon's original 1960s Beatle boot and platforms worn by Elton John in the 1970s, all from the museum's own holdings.

OCTOBER

Syria: A Living History (Aga Khan Museum)

October 15, 2016, to February 26, 2017

www.agakhanmuseum.org

Few countries have captured the world's attention like Syria has today. Stories of conflict and displacement dominate the media and define people's awareness of the place. Syria: A Living History brings together artifacts and artworks that tell a different story—one of cultural diversity, historical continuity, resourcefulness, and resilience.

Mystical Landscapes: Masterpieces from Monet, Van Gogh and More (Art Gallery of Ontario)

October 22, 2016 – January 29, 2017

www.ago.net

Mystical Landscapes traces the quest of artists engaged in the search for meaning through the contemplation of nature.

Organized in partnership with the renowned Musée d'Orsay in Paris, Mystical Landscapes: Masterpieces from Monet, van Gogh and more breaks new ground by exploring the mystical experiences of 36 artists from 15 countries, including Emily Carr, Paul Gauguin, Vincent van Gogh, Vassily Kandinsky, Piet Mondrian, Claude Monet, Edvard Munch, Georgia O'Keeffe and James McNeill Whistler.

Fort York National Historic Site

Fall 2016

<http://www.toronto.ca/fortyork>

Fort York National Historic Site is both the birthplace of modern Toronto and home to Canada's largest collection of War of 1812 military structures. In 2014, the Fort York Visitor Centre opened with temporary exhibits. In fall 2016, the Visitor Centre will re-open with a suite of permanent exhibits in five gallery spaces:

- Lobby displays explaining why a fort was created at this place, what happened there, how the city grew up around the fort, and why the fort survives today.

- A major exhibition that looks at how the War of 1812 shaped modern Canada.
- A rotating display of outstanding artifacts relating to Toronto's military history, home and abroad.
- An immersive time tunnel, giving visitors a sense of the most traumatic event in Toronto history – the Battle of York (April 27, 1813).
- A new orientation film in the theatre, highlighting Fort York's endurance within the Toronto landscape for over 200 years.
- An interactive wayfinding station, enabling visitors to virtually explore the full 43-acre National Historic Site and its surroundings.
